

6516205670.txt

Please do not impose any restrictions on the services offered by satellite radio. I've been a subscriber for over two years and can't imagine my morning commute without it. If standard broadcast radio stations are feeling threatened then they need to improve the quality of their own product rather than rely on legislation to allow them to monopolize the airwaves.